Why not consider becoming a priest, sister, brother or deacon? Encourage others!

DID YOU KNOW?...

With grateful remembrance...

- *Built upon the faith, dedication and talents of its generations-rooted parishioners, St. Theresa Church, Kekaha has grown not only with the artwork and musical compositions of Henry Tazeta, but if you look up inside the church, the wrought iron work was done by Arthur Kruse. La Salette Father Arnel Soriano gave Martha Sialana Kruse a special blessing on her 95th birthday. 6 generations of the Sialana's worked in the sugar cane fields and helped grow St. Theresa Church and School.
- *Franciscan Sisters of the Neumann Communities, Sister Candida Oroc and Sister Florence Remata are from West Kauai. Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary mission in Waimea is over 100 years old. In a brief remembrance at the church, Dominican Sr. Malia Dominica shared Sr. Florence's story of how the pastor would gather the children from Waimea in his station wagon and take them to St. Theresa School. Sacred Hearts is gearing up for its 75th anniversary in 2016.
- *Franciscan Sister of Christian Charity, Sister Janet shared at Sacred Hearts Church how she grew up on a dairy farm. It was during the silence while driving the tractor one day that she heard God's call. A return teacher to St. Theresa School, she enjoys being back at the school the Sisters began in 1946.
- *Sisters of the Holy Family Sister Carol, is known as a historical sleuth from when she served as parish secretary of St. Raphael. From the YCL Traveling Exhibit, one parishioner recognized Sacred Hearts Father Eustatius who died in 1886. He is said to be the only Sacred Hearts priest buried in Kauai, and at St. Raphael Cemetery. There is excitement to verify this.
- *All-around kokua-in-action, St. Raphael parishioner Tina Brun was happy to see her husband's cousin, Sister Roselani Gomes in one of the YCL Travelling Exhibit posters.

Living the present with passion...

- *Under the directorship of Principal Mary Jean Buza-Sims, a native of Kauai and Seattle Seahawk fan, St. Theresa School students celebrated Sports Teams day. Students wore jerseys representing the Packers, Colts, Seahawks, U.H. and more. The presentations of Marianist Brother Tom and Daughter of St. Paul Sister Maria Joseph to the students was prefaced by "wearing the uniform of God's service" with the invitation to become a priest, religious or brother.
- *La Salette Father Edison Pamintuan returned to St. Raphael Church to help pastor, Fr. Augustine Uthuppu, MS. On his sabbatical, Fr. Ed has been putting Pope Francis' words into action. He made 300 t-shirts with the 7th commandment on it which he freely distributed in the Philippines.

Embracing the future with hope...

- *Temporary professed Franciscan Sister of Charity Sister Monica shared in her presentation at St. Theresa Church that she was not interested in becoming a sister. But in the quest for happiness and sharing with her friends become priests, she has found her greatest joy as an FSCC.
- *Charlene Lazaro and the youth of St. Theresa Church helped distribute YCL material before their bake sale to raise funds in support of their Confirmation retreat.
